UNBROKEN: Louis Zamperini's Story of Survival, Resilience and Redemption

Luke Zamperini brings his father Louis' story to life at your event. In addition to sharing fascinating details from Louis' amazing life, Luke identifies key incidents and concepts learned from his father that have shaped and molded Luke's own character, compelled him into a life of service, and led him to a career in the field of emergency preparedness.

The program begins with a showing of the 35 minute Emmy Award-winning CBS Sports video "THE GREAT ZAMPERINI", which chronicles Louis' amazing life story.

Following this compelling video, Luke shares a unique perspective: Luke focuses on how the disciplines of athletics, scouting, and education prepared Louis to survive his incredible ordeal at sea and would subsequently help him to endure cruelty and humiliation as a prisoner of war. This program concludes with audience participation through an extensive question and answer session.

Luke's story of his father, Louis Zamperini's multifaceted inspirational odyssey has relevance for any type of gathering, from corporate motivational conferences to church meetings.
